CHENNAI DIVISION SETS UP 'CHEER4INDIA' SELFIE POINTS TO EXPRESS SUPPORT INDIAN OLYMPIC SQUAD

Chennai Division of Southern Railway has set up #CHEER4INDIA# selfie point at the concourse of its divisional office (NGO Annexe), to encourage and support sportspersons participating in the Olympic games 2021 to be held in Tokyo, Japan.

Indian Railways is organising 'Cheer4India' campaign in all its zones, divisions to cheer the Indian contingents who are competing in the Tokyo Olympics commencing on 23rd July 2021. As a part of this campaign, Chennai Division has setup a selfie point in its divisional office, today (16.07.2021) to express its support to the Indian contingents and reinforce Olympic spirit. The officers and staff of the Division shared their love and support to the Indian squad by taking selfies and posting it on social media handles. On such #cheers4India# standee is available at Chennai Egmore PF 4.

Ministry of Railways has set up over 6000 selfie points all over the country at various railway stations and offices. 119 athletes (67 Male and 52 female participants) from India are about to participate in the Tokyo Olympics of which some sportstars are from Indian Railways too. This year, Ms. Revathy Veeramani, an employee and star athlete of Southern Railway will represent India in 4x400 mts mixed relay event at Tokyo Olympics.

Chennai Division urges public to cheer and support the Olympic contingents by striking a motivational pose at the #Cheer4India# selfie points and share the same on social media.
