CHENNAI DIVISION ENHANCES PASSENGER SAFETY WITH EXTENSIVE CCTV COVERAGE AT RAILWAY STATIONS

Chennai Division of Southern Railway continues to prioritize passenger safety and comfort by significantly expanding CCTV surveillance across its railway stations, providing a safer and more secure travel environment for millions of daily commuters.

Across the 141 stations under Chennai Division, CCTV cameras are already operational at 59 major stations, including the Chennai Beach–Tambaram suburban section and all MRTS stations.

To further benefit passengers, CCTV installation is underway at 82 additional stations, covering both busy suburban stations and smaller halt stations. This ensures that every passenger, wherever they board or alight, can feel safer.

CCTV INSTALLATION IS IN PROGRESS:

Chennai Central – Gummidipundi Section: Tondiarpet, Korukkupet, VOC Nagar, Tiruvottiyur, Wimco Nagar, Kathivakkam, Nandiambakkam, Minjur, Anuppambattu, Ponneri, Kavaraiappettai and Gummidipundi.

Chennai Central – Jolarpettai & Chennai Central – Arakkonam Sections: Vyasarpadi Jeeva, Perambur Carriage Works, Veppampattu, Egattur, Kadambattur, Senjipanambakkam, Manavur, Tiruvalangadu, Mosur and Puliyamangalam.

In addition, 19 high-risk points and critical crossing locations—including Ponneri, Kavaraiappettai, Minjur, Pattabiram, Tiruninravur, Attipattu, Ennore, Tiruvottiyur, Gummidipundi, Elavur, Arambakkam, Tiruttani, Basin Bridge, Villivakkam, Ambattur, Avadi, Tiruvallur, Kadambattur and Tiruvalangadu — are already under CCTV monitoring.

The cameras cover platforms, station entrances and exits, booking offices, foot over bridges, and circulating areas, enabling the Railway Protection Force (RPF) to respond quickly to emergencies, manage crowds efficiently, and assist passengers whenever needed.

This initiative reflects Chennai Division commitment to passenger safety and comfort, ensuring every journey is secure and pleasant. Passengers are encouraged to report any suspicious activity to station staff or via Railway Helpline 139.
