It has been decided to celebrate International Women's Day 2018 on 8th March 2018 in Madurai Division.

As a part of this celebration the Division intends to hold a debate on that date on the topic "Should parents live with their sons or daughters when they are old - "

One side to argue for living with their daughters and other side to argue for living with their sons.

Women employees who desirous to participate may contact Smt. J. Raviyath Beevi, OS/Personnel Branch/MDU through Cell No.8248552138.

Furthermore, we will have essay writing competitions for which the winner will be declared on that date. The essay should reach to the undersigned in closed covers on or before 6th March. The topics for the essay are:

- a) Has life improved for women after they started finding jobs outside the home.
- b)As a parent what do I tell my daughter, what do I tell my son.

Miss Selva Gomathi, Executive Director, SOCO Trust will be the chief guest of the function. DRM/MDU will preside the function. The function will commence from 14.00 hours at Vaigai Club, Railway Colony, Madurai.

The women employees working under your control may be encouraged and allowed to attend the above function on their own leave.
